Exceptional Performance For Circuit-Style Recreational Racers

ADVAN A048 takes Yokohama's advanced racing technology to a new level in D.O.T.-approved race tire performance. A048 brings more legendary ADVAN performance to the United States.

Get The Grip That Performs

Single Block Design

- The entire tread surface is one continuous tread block, which increases stiffness, enhances cornering and optimizes power transitions during acceleration and braking.
- This continuous design ensures constant contact with the road, delivering a better "on-center" feel and responsive steering.

Rounded Casing Design

- Developed for racing applications, this unique tread profile quickly and easily transitions from straight-line sprints to high-speed cornering, enabling predictable handling.

State-of-the-Art, Race-Ready Compound

- The latest result of Yokohama technology, the A048 compound delivers phenomenal grip under a broad range of temperatures.
